

Management Companies and Managing Agent - operating structure in our community

Management Companies established by the developer
Requirement to participate, as members and in the paying of service charges, included in deeds/leases

Management Company members are owners or leaseholders of the properties (not necessarily residents)

Radford Park Residents Association

Independent of this structure. Residents Associations act as a voice for residents in addressing issues in their local area which can include challenging management companies and their managing agents